Lesson Plan

Class: VII Subject: S.S.T

Topic: Constitution of 1973

Curriculum or/& Book Name: S.T.B.B Jamshoro Date: 30-04-26

Duration: 40 min Class Strength: 60

Specific Learning Objectives:

Students will be able to:

- List at least 3 features of the 1973 constitution
- Explain federal, parliamentary, sovereignty in own words
- Recognize the rights of minorities
- Give 1 real life example of how the features affects daily life

Skills/Attitude:

critical thinking skills, communication skills

3. Teaching Resources:

Model, rules chart

4. Classroom Management Rules & Strategy:

The teacher will make 3 teams (A, B, C) and the teacher adds stars to the teams as they follow the rules and the team with maximum stars will win

Teaching Method:

Demonstration, activity based pair work

Procedure*:*

Initiation:

The teacher asks students what rules are made by their father or mother at their home e.g sleeping at 10pm. Students will respond according to their experiences. After collecting responses the teacher will connect these rules with the topic: Just like our parents have made rules for the betterment of our house, Our country also have such rules. Today we will discuss these rules.

Development:

The teacher will tell students that such rules of a country are called constitution.

Definition: "It is the basic law of a state"

On august 14 1973 this constitution was enforced that means 14 august 1973 was the day when all these rules started working. The leader at that time was Zulfiqar Ali Bhutto.

Today we will discuss the 6 salient features:

1. State Religion: The state religion of Pakistan is Islam as mostly muslims live here.
2. National language: It's Urdu and official language is English (used in courts and government business)
3. Federal form of government: Means that power is shared b/w federal govt and 4 provinces.
4. Parliamentary system: Means the administration is chosen by the people through elections.
5. Direct elections: Means that the govt has to provide the method of how to execute and conduct elections in the country.
6. Rights of minorities are also protected that means hindus,christians and jews are given rights to worship in their places of worship.

Activity:

Teacher makes pairs.one salient feature is assigned to each pair. One by one pair comes. One student reads aloud and both have to explain the feature in 2 to 3 sentences. In their own words students can also go bilingual while explaining.

RECAP:

The teacher will give a quick revision of the 6 salient features with examples.

6. Board Summary

Topic: Constitution of 1973

Basic law of a state

Salient Features:

- State religion
- National language
- Federal form of government
- Parliamentary
- Direct elections
- Rights of minorities